

RenaissanceRe Announces Acquisition of Agro National

April 11, 2008

PEMBROKE, Bermuda--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 11, 2008--RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. (NYSE: RNR) announced an agreement to acquire the assets of Agro National, a premier managing general underwriter of crop insurance offering high quality products and services to the agricultural community. Terms were not disclosed.

Agro National will become part of the Glencoe Group, which conducts the Individual Risk business of RenaissanceRe. Glencoe Group is a leading writer of program business through admitted and non-admitted carriers and has partnered with Agro National over the past four years to write multi-peril crop insurance policies in the Federal Crop Insurance Program.

Neill A. Currie, President and Chief Executive Officer of RenaissanceRe, said, "Agro National has been an important partner to the Glencoe Group and we know first-hand the quality of the team that is joining our organization. The acquisition of this superior franchise will strengthen our operating platform and provide us the means to expand the resources we commit to the agricultural marketplace, a market that presents excellent growth prospects."

Rick Gibson, founder of Agro National, said, "Agro National is pleased to be joining forces with our trusted partner, Stonington Insurance Company a member of the Glencoe Group. The Agro team looks forward to continuing to deliver value to farmers through superior products and services and to providing solutions to manage their business risks."

This transaction is subject to the satisfaction of conditions precedent, including receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, and is expected to be completed in the second quarter of this year.
