RenaissanceRe Holdings Announces Retirement Transition Plan for President William I. Riker

Will Continue at RenaissanceRe through End of 2007

Hamilton, Bermuda, May 23, 2007 – RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. (NYSE:RNR) announced today a retirement transition plan for William I. Riker, the Company's President. Mr. Riker will remain with the Company until the end of 2007, and thereafter remain an employee serving in an advisory capacity until August 2008. Neill A. Currie, Chief Executive Officer of RenaissanceRe, will also assume the role of President.

"Bill has been an important part of RenaissanceRe since our first year of operation in 1993, playing a central role in forming and executing the strategy that has led to our success," said Neill A. Currie, Chief Executive Officer. "Though we will miss him as a member of the team after his departure, we look forward to working with Bill through the course of the next year.

"We are fortunate to have a highly talented and committed team which is already assuring that we build on our record of success by taking RenaissanceRe to the next stage of its growth and development," said Mr. Currie.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed being part of RenaissanceRe's development over the course of its history, and the many friendships I have made here," said Mr. Riker. "Together, we have created an industry leading company with a first-class team of professionals. I believe RenRe is as strong as ever and the timing is right for me to consider the transition to the next part of my life. I look forward to continuing to work with Neill and the rest of the team to facilitate a smooth transition over the next year."
