All of the share and per share information provided in this Proxy Statement is presented as if the stock dividend had occurred for all periods presented.

matter to be voted upon by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting for each share held. Each holder of Diluted Voting Shares is entitled to a fixed voting interest in RenaissanceRe of up to 9.9% of all outstanding voting rights attached to the Common Shares, inclusive of the percentage interest in RenaissanceRe represented by Controlled Common Shares (as defined below) of the holder, but in no event greater than one vote for each share held. SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION

PROXIES IN THE FORM ENCLOSED ARE BEING SOLICITED BY, OR ON BEHALF OF, THE BOARD. THE PERSONS NAMED IN THE ACCOMPANYING FORM OF PROXY HAVE BEEN DESIGNATED AS PROXIES BY THE BOARD. Such persons designated as proxies serve as officers of RenaissanceRe. Any shareholder desiring to appoint another person to represent him or her at the Annual Meeting may do so either by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided on the accompanying form of proxy, or by completing another form of proxy and, in either case, delivering an executed proxy to the Secretary of RenaissanceRe at the address indicated above, before the time of the Annual Meeting. It is the responsibility of the shareholder appointing such other person to represent him or her to inform such person of this appointment.

All Common Shares represented by properly executed proxies which are returned and not revoked will be voted in accordance with the instructions, if any, given thereon. If no instructions are provided in an executed proxy, it will be voted FOR each of the Proposals described herein and set forth on the accompanying form of proxy, and in accordance with the proxyholder's best judgment as to any other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting. If a shareholder appoints a person other than the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to represent him or her, such person will vote the shares in respect of which he or she is appointed proxyholder in accordance with the directions of the shareholder appointing him or her. Member brokerage firms of The New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the "NYSE") that hold shares in street name for beneficial owners may, to the extent that such beneficial owners do not furnish voting instructions with respect to any or all proposals submitted for shareholder action, vote in their discretion upon all of the Proposals. Any "broker non-votes" and abstentions will not be counted as shares present in connection with proposals with respect to which they are not voted. Any shareholder who executes a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by delivering to the Secretary of RenaissanceRe a written statement revoking such proxy, by executing and delivering a later dated proxy, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Attendance at the Annual Meeting by a shareholder who has executed and delivered a proxy to us shall not in and of itself constitute a revocation of such proxy.

We will bear the cost of solicitation of proxies. We have engaged the firm of MacKenzie Partners to assist us in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of $3,000, plus the reimbursement of certain expenses. Further solicitation may be made by our directors, officers and employees personally, by telephone, internet or otherwise, but such persons will not be specifically compensated for such services. We may also make, through bankers, brokers or other persons, a solicitation of proxies of beneficial holders of the Common Shares. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Housing and Lease Arrangements

In September 1998, we entered into a twenty-one year lease (the "Lease") with respect to a house in Paget Parish, Bermuda, previously occupied by William I. Riker and currently occupied by James N. Stanard. The property which is subject to the Lease is owned by the Bellevue Trust (the "Trust"). Mr. Riker is a Trustee of the Trust, and holds no direct economic interest therein. Mr. Riker does hold an indirect economic interest through a personal loan provided indirectly to the Trust. Mr. Stanard did not have a direct or indirect economic interest in the Trust at the time of the execution of the Lease. We prepaid under the Lease an aggregate amount of $2,063,874 to the Trust, representing the present value of all of the twenty-one year Lease payments. If the Lease is terminated for any reason, then we will be repaid all outstanding amounts due under the remaining term of the Lease. We believe that the terms of the Lease reasonably represented market value terms appropriate for the Bermuda residential property market.

RenaissanceRe reimburses the rent on the Bermuda residence of each other Named Executive Officer, which housing expense is included in the compensation paid to each such Named Executive Officer. See "Executive Officer and Director Compensation-Executive Compensation." RenaissanceRe is the lessee on the Bermuda residences of each of Messrs. Lummis and Nichols, and subleases such residences to Messrs. Lummis and Nichols. In addition, in connection with RenaissanceRe's lease of Mr. Nichols residence, RenaissanceRe made payments in 2003 totaling $217,500, of which $125,000 represented improvements on the residence and $66,000 represented prepaid rent.

We have filed a Registration Statement on Form S-8 under the Securities Act (File No. 333-06339) registering for sale an aggregate of 7,237,500 Full Voting Common Shares issued pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plans and the Directors Stock Plan.

Charitable Donations

We provide support to various charitable organizations in the Bermuda community that meet certain guidelines, including organizations which support insurance industry education and training; crime prevention; and substance abuse prevention, education and assistance. As part of our efforts, we match donations made by our officers and other employees to enumerated Bermuda charities at a ratio of 4:1 for the first $1,250 of employee contribution, and 2:1 thereafter, up to a maximum matching contribution for each employee of $10,000 per year. We make direct charitable contributions, in addition to the employee matching program, as well. Certain of our officers and directors, and spouses of certain of these persons, have served as directors or trustees of some of these organizations. In the 2003 fiscal year, we did not provide more than $1 million to any one charity or, to our knowledge, fund more than 2% of a charity's consolidated gross revenues, including charities with which our employees may be affiliated. James N. Stanard is a director or trustee of The Bermuda Biological Station for Research, Inc. and Habitat for Humanity -Bermuda to which we made contributions of $107,000 and $76,000, respectively, in 2003.

- 11 -

In 2003, we donated $20,000 to the Bermuda Foundation for Insurance Studies, a charitable foundation of which Brian Hall is the Chair. Neither Messrs. Stanard or Hall is compensated by these charities.

Co-investments

Certain officers of RenaissanceRe have made investments in investment funds in which RenaissanceRe also invests. None of these officers receives any compensation in connection with such investments or exercises any management discretion over any such investment fund. All such investments have been approved by the Board.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS; BOARD COMMITTEES

Overview

During 2003, the Board met four times, the Audit Committee met four times, the Compensation/Governance Committee met four times, the Investment and Risk Management Committee met four times, the Transaction Committee did not meet, and the Offerings Committee met once. During 2003, each of our directors attended all meetings of the Board and any Committee on which they served.

The Board has conducted a review of the independence of each of the current directors and of Mr. Trivisonno, a nominee for director at the Annual Meeting. During this review, the Board considered transactions and relationships between each director and nominee or any member of his immediate family and RenaissanceRe or its subsidiaries and affiliates. The Board also examined relationships between directors and nominees or their affiliates and members of RenaissanceRe's senior management or their affiliates. As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that Messrs. Cooper, Greene, Hall, Hecht, MacGinnitie and Pardee are, and Trivisonno would be, "independent" directors for purposes of compliance with the NYSE listing standards and Commission rules adopted to implement provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Messrs. Stanard and Riker are not considered independent directors because of their employment as senior executives of RenaissanceRe.

The independent directors meet separately from the other directors in an executive session each quarter. The chair of such executive sessions is rotated each quarter among the independent directors who are not chairs of the committees of the Board described below.

Currently RenaissanceRe does not maintain a formal policy regarding director attendance at the Annual Meeting which, to date has always been held in Bermuda. At our 2003 Annual Meeting, other than the Chairman, no directors were in attendance.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board presently consists of Messrs. Hall, Greene and Pardee. The Board has determined that all members of the Audit Committee meet the independence standards of the NYSE. The Board has determined that each of Messrs. Hall,

- 12 -

Greene and Pardee is an audit committee financial expert for the purposes of the Commission's rules. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to (i) the integrity of our financial statements; (ii) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (iii) our external independent auditor's qualifications and independence; and (iv) the performance of our internal audit function and external independent auditors.

The Audit Committee reviews and discusses our annual and quarterly financial statements, earnings press releases, and other financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies with both management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee also reviews the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives on our financial statements with management, the internal auditor and the external independent auditor.

In addition, the Audit Committee provides an avenue for communication between our external independent auditors, financial management and the Board. The Audit Committee has the sole authority to appoint, compensate, retain and conduct oversight of the work of our external independent auditors, and to approve any significant proposed non-audit work to be conducted by these auditors. The Audit Committee is required to obtain, at least annually, a report from the external independent auditors describing the auditor's quality control procedures, issues arising from such procedures, the resolution of these issues and any relationships between the auditor and us.

The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which is reviewed and reassessed annually. The Audit Committee charter is attached hereto as Appendix A and is available on our website at www.renre.com.

Compensation/Governance Committee

The Compensation/Governance Committee of the Board presently consists of Messrs. Cooper and Hecht. The Compensation/Governance Committee has responsibility for senior officer and director compensation, corporate governance matters, and the nomination and evaluation of additional directors. It has the authority to establish compensation policies and programs, to administer all employee and Board stock-based compensation plans, and to approve stock options ("Options"), Restricted Share, performance share, and similar stock-based grants under our stock incentive and bonus plans and programs. The Board has determined that all members of the Compensation/Governance Committee meet the independence standards of the NYSE.

In connection with its responsibility to consider the effectiveness and composition of the Board, and to nominate candidates for election by our shareholders, the Compensation/Governance Committee will consider nominees to the Board recommended by not less than twenty shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than 10% of RenaissanceRe's outstanding paid up share capital. Any such recommendation must be sent to the Secretary of RenaissanceRe not less than 60 days prior to the scheduled date of the Annual Meeting and must set forth for each nominee: (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of the nominee; (ii) the principal occupation or employment of the nominee; (iii) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of RenaissanceRe which are owned beneficially or of record by the nominee; and (iv) any other information relating to the nominee that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder ("Proxy Filings"). The written notice must also include the following information with regard to the shareholder giving the notice: (1) the name and record address of such shareholder; (2) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of RenaissanceRe which are owned beneficially or of record by such shareholder; (3) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such shareholder and each proposed nominee and any other person (including his name and address) pursuant to which the nomination(s) are to be made by such shareholder; (4) a representation that such shareholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the persons named in its notice; and (v) any other information relating to such shareholder that would be required to be disclosed in a Proxy Filing. Such notice must be accompanied by a written consent of each proposed nominee to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected. The Compensation/Governance Committee may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure.

Assuming that the shareholder suggesting a nomination follows the procedure outlined above, the Compensation/Governance Committee will evaluate those candidates by following substantially the same process, and applying substantially the same criteria, as for candidates submitted by Board members or by other persons. In considering whether to recommend any candidate for inclusion in the Board's slate of recommended director nominees, including candidates recommended by shareholders, the Compensation/Governance Committee would expect to apply the same criteria which they apply to their own nominations. These criteria typically include the candidate's integrity, business acumen, leadership qualities, experience in the reinsurance, insurance and risk bearing industries and other industries that RenaissanceRe may participate in, and potential conflicts of interest. The Compensation/Governance Committee does not assign specific weights to particular criteria and no particular criterion is necessarily applicable to all prospective nominees. Our Board believes that the backgrounds and qualifications of the directors, considered as a group, should provide a significant composite mix of experience, knowledge and abilities that will allow the Board to fulfill its responsibilities.

The Compensation/Governance Committee has adopted a written charter, which is reviewed and reassessed annually. The Compensation/Governance Committee Charter is available on our website at www.renre.com.

Investment and Risk Management Committee

The Investment and Risk Management Committee of the Board presently consists of Messrs. MacGinnitie, Pardee and Riker. The duties and responsibilities of the Investment and Risk Management Committee, as outlined in its Charter, are to advise the Board on all of RenaissanceRe's investment and certain risk management-related matters. Among other things, the Committee oversees (i) the development and maintenance of, and compliance with, appropriate investment guidelines and objectives; (ii) the strategic asset allocations of our investment portfolio; and (iii) our corporate risk management, including the financial risk associated with the insurance and reinsurance we write.

The Investment and Risk Management Committee has adopted a written charter, which is reviewed and reassessed annually.

- 14 -

Transaction Committee

The Transaction Committee of the Board presently consists of Messrs. Cooper, MacGinnitie and Stanard and has the authority of the Board to consider and approve, on behalf of the full Board, strategic investments and other possible transactions.

Offerings Committee

The Offerings Committee of the Board presently consists of Messrs. Stanard and Riker and has the authority of the Board to consider and approve, on behalf of the full Board, transactions pursuant to RenaissanceRe's shelf registration program, including setting the terms, amount and price of any such offering.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under the Exchange Act, our directors and executive officers, and any persons holding more than 10% of the outstanding Common Shares are required to report their initial ownership of Common Shares and any subsequent changes in that ownership to the Commission. Specific filing dates for these reports have been established by the Commission, and we are required to disclose in this Proxy Statement any failure by such persons to file these reports in a timely manner during the 2003 fiscal year. Based upon our review of copies of such reports furnished to us, we believe that (except as set forth below) during the 2003 fiscal year our executive officers and directors and the holders of more than 10% of the outstanding Common Shares complied with all reporting requirements of Section 16(a) under the Exchange Act.

In 2003, Mr. Riker discovered that certain dividends on his Common Shares had been automatically reinvested pursuant to the terms of his brokerage account, purchasing additional Common Shares during the period commencing August 29, 2001 and ending March 6, 2002, and that such purchases were inadvertently not reported. These transactions were reported by Mr. Riker on October 28, 2003, and in connection therewith, Mr. Riker has paid an amount equal to $1,539.72 to RenaissanceRe in accordance with the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor shall such information or report be incorporated by reference into any future filing by us under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate it by reference in such filing.

The Audit Committee oversees RenaissanceRe's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment and oversight of the work of Ernst & Young, our independent auditors, for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with Ernst & Young, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of our accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. Ernst & Young reported to the Audit Committee (i) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used; (ii) various alternative treatments within generally accepted accounting principles for policies and practices related to material items that were discussed with management, including ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments and the treatment preferred by Ernst & Young, if applicable; and (iii) other material written communications between the Ernst & Young and management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young its independence from both management and RenaissanceRe and has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1.

The Audit Committee discussed with Ernst & Young the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examination, their evaluations of RenaissanceRe's internal controls, and the overall quality of our financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the Commission. The Audit Committee, pursuant to its pre-approval policies and procedures, and the Board have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of RenaissanceRe's independent auditors for the 2004 fiscal year.

EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Compensation/Governance Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Executive Compensation Policy. Our compensation policy for all of our executive officers is formulated and administered by the Compensation/Governance Committee of the Board. The components of our compensation policy include salary, annual bonus, and long-term incentives, consisting of Options and Restricted Shares. The Compensation/Governance Committee administers the RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. 2001 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2001 Stock Incentive Plan") under which the Compensation/Governance Committee periodically grants Options and Restricted Shares to executive officers and other employees, and the Second Amended and Restated 1993 Stock Incentive Plan of RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. (the "1993 Stock Incentive Plan") and, together with the 2001 Stock Incentive Plan, the "Stock Incentive Plans"). All Options and Restricted Shares available for issuance under the 1993 Stock Incentive Plan have been issued as of the date hereof. Exercise prices and vesting terms of Options granted under the Stock Incentive Plans are in the sole discretion of the Compensation/Governance Committee.

The primary goals of our compensation policy are to continue to attract and retain talented executives at our offshore location, to reward results (i.e., contribution to shareholder value, financial performance and accomplishment of agreed-upon projects) and to encourage teamwork. In addition, the Compensation/Governance Committee believes that the total compensation awarded should be concentrated in equity-based incentives to link the interests of our executives closely with the interests of our shareholders. In determining the level of executive compensation, the Compensation/Governance Committee evaluates whether the compensation awarded to an executive is competitive with compensation awarded to executives holding similar positions at selected peer companies, combined with an evaluation of the executive's performance.

We have entered into employment agreements with each of our senior executive officers, all other officers of RenaissanceRe and certain other professional employees. These employment agreements contain certain non-compete and confidentiality obligations for such officers. In addition, in light of the significant contribution of the officers to our success and the enhancement of shareholder value, the contracts also seek to ensure the continued retention of these key employees into the future, and to incentivize these employees and further align their interests with those of the shareholders by weighting significantly the compensation of such officers with equity-based incentives. The Compensation/Governance Committee reviews and approves the base salary component and cost of living allowances awarded to such executives under their respective employment agreements. The Committee may also award discretionary annual cash bonuses.

The Committee may also grant Options and/or Restricted Shares to our executive officers. Generally, Options are granted at a price equal to the average closing price of the five trading days prior to the date of the grant. The Compensation/Governance Committee believes that such executives' beneficial ownership positions in RenaissanceRe, as a result of their respective personal investments and the Options and Restricted Shares granted to them, causes their interests to be well aligned with those of RenaissanceRe and of our shareholders. The Compensation/Governance Committee retains the discretion to make grants as it deems necessary or appropriate, and may periodically reevaluate RenaissanceRe's approach to equity compensation in order to ensure that key executives are properly incentivized to maximize shareholder value over the long term. Currently, approximately 3,873,645 Common Shares remain available for grants under the 2001 Stock Incentive Plan.

During 2003, we conducted a review of our compensation structure, and retained Mercer Human Resource Consulting ("Mercer") to help us design the new structure and to evaluate competitive pay levels. In addition to comparing our compensation practices, including pay mix, equity incentive usage and share ownership levels, against market practice, with respect to our executive officers, Mercer compared the compensation levels of our officers with that of similarly situated officers in companies similar in size and line of business to RenaissanceRe. This group of comparison companies included some of those that comprise the S&P Property Casualty Index used in the performance graph set forth below.

As a result of this review and taking into account the recommendations of Mercer, we made the following changes:

- o We increased the cash component of our executive compensation to improve our competitiveness relative to comparable companies.
- o We simplified our structure so that executive compensation consists principally of base salary, annual cash bonus, Restricted Stock and Options.
- o We eliminated our Long Term Incentive Bonus Program, a deferred cash compensation program that had previously been in effect. However, payments will continue to be made in the future with respect to the plan cycles that began before 2003. The last such payments will be made in 2006 for the 2002 plan cycle.

In addition, during 2003 we eliminated the employee stock bonus program under which employees received stock in lieu of up to half of their cash bonus, and also received a matching grant of restricted shares.

Chief Executive Officer's Compensation. The compensation of James N. Stanard, our President and Chief Executive Officer, is determined and reviewed by the Compensation/Governance Committee, and is also governed by the terms of Mr. Stanard's employment agreement. In determining the discretionary portion of Mr. Stanard's compensation, the Compensation/Governance Committee evaluates Mr. Stanard's contributions toward creation and enhancement of shareholder value, including the achievement of agreed-upon objectives. The Compensation/Governance Committee considers subjective factors, such as Mr. Stanard's dedication and leadership abilities, as well as objective factors, such as his impact on our financial and operating performance. The Compensation/Governance Committee believes that our continuing development, our operating results, our execution of our capital plan, our success in motivating our employees, the articulation of our strategic vision and our current market position were significantly impacted by Mr. Stanard and members of his management team.

In recognition of Mr. Stanard's long term contribution to RenaissanceRe and to the enhancement of shareholder value, the Committee resolved that it would be in the best interests of RenaissanceRe and our shareholders to retain Mr. Stanard to ensure that his contribution to RenaissanceRe and our shareholders would continue.

Consistent with the Compensation/Governance Committee's general compensation philosophy for our executives, Mr. Stanard's compensation has been weighted significantly towards performance-based compensation in the form of equity awards and cash bonus payments. In 2003, we granted him 54,296 Options and 16,289 Restricted Shares.

Mr. Stanard's cash bonus payments for 2003 were governed by the terms of his employment agreement as in effect during 2003, and were based upon achievement of certain earnings per share targets and cumulative ROE targets. See "CEO Employment Agreement."

The Compensation/Governance Committee believes that the performance-based compensation elements of Mr. Stanard's overall compensation, together with his beneficial ownership position in RenaissanceRe, as a result of his personal investment and the Options and Restricted Shares granted to him, cause his interests to be well aligned with the long term interests of RenaissanceRe and our shareholders.

RenaissanceRe is not a United States taxpayer, therefore, Section 162(m) of the Code (which generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for annual compensation over $1 million paid to the chief executive officer or any of the four other most highly compensated executive officers) does not apply to RenaissanceRe's compensation payments.

Each measurement point on the graph below represents the cumulative shareholder return as measured by the last sale price at the end of each calendar year during the period from January 1, 1999 through December 31, 2003. As depicted in the graph below, during this period, the cumulative total return (loss) (1) on our Common Shares was 352.5%, (2) for the S&P 500 Composite Stock Price Index was (2.8)% and (3) for the S&P Property-Casualty Industry Group Stock Price Index was 20.1%.

Long Term Incentive Bonus Program

In 1997 we established a Long Term Incentive Bonus Program for our officers. In general under the program, bonuses are paid over a four-year period if we achieve pre-established performance targets within the four-year performance cycle. The program provides for sequential four-year performance cycles; accordingly, additional four-year periods are expected to become effective under the program each calendar year. With respect to any fiscal year within the four-year period, 50 percent of an officer's target bonus amount generally will be payable only if our operating earnings per share ("EPS") targets were achieved or exceeded for the preceding fiscal year, and the other 50 percent of the target bonus amount generally will be payable only if we meet the cumulative Return on Equity ("ROE") targets for the preceding fiscal year. However, if we do not achieve the target level in one of the two component target categories (EPS and ROE) in any year, for purposes of determining a participant's bonus amount for such year, our underperformance in one category, or in one year, can be offset by our out performance in the other category, or in another year, to permit total payout at a target level. The performance targets are established by the Compensation/Governance Committee.

We have eliminated our Long Term Incentive Bonus Program for plan cycles occurring after 2003, although payments will continue to be made in the future with respect to the plan cycles that began before 2003. The last such payments will be made in 2006 for the 2002 plan cycle. The table below sets forth the estimated payments to be made to the Named Executive Officers with respect to the 2002, 2001, and 2000 four-year cycles in place, if the EPS and ROE targets are met; additional amounts may be payable based on outperformance relative to these targets. Bonuses under the Long Term Incentive Bonus Program are payable, at the discretion of the Compensation/Governance Committee, in cash and/or in Options and Restricted Shares granted under the 2001 Stock Incentive Plan. In addition, the amounts below are estimates and amounts to be paid under the 2002, 2001, and 2000 plans may vary from such estimates based on our results.

Director Compensation

The RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. Amended and Restated Non-Employee Director Stock Plan, as amended (the "Directors Stock Plan"), provides equity compensation for those of our directors (the "Non-Employee Directors") who are not employees of RenaissanceRe or its affiliates. The Directors Stock Plan provides (i) for directors in the first year of a three year term, a grant of Options with a value of $100,000, which vest ratably over a three year period; (ii) for directors in the second and third years of a three year term, a grant of shares of restricted stock with value of $100,000, which vest ratably over a three year periods; and (iii) other grants at the discretion of the Board.

- 25 -

Non-Employee Directors also currently receive an annual retainer of $40,000 under the Directors Stock Plan. Non-Employee Directors also receive a fee of $3,000 for each Board meeting attended. Additionally, we provide to all directors reimbursement of all expenses incurred in connection with service on the Board. Educational expenses of less than $2,500 may be incurred without prior approval, however, larger expenses should be approved by the Board before being incurred. Non-Employee Director compensation is reviewed periodically.

In 2003, 2002 and 2001, we did not grant any Options to our Non-Employee Directors. However, the Committee retains discretion to make additional grants if it deems necessary or appropriate.

CEO Employment Agreement

Effective as of November 8, 2002, we entered into a Fifth Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with Mr. Stanard (the "CEO Employment Agreement"). The CEO Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Stanard will serve as Chief Executive Officer of RenaissanceRe and Renaissance Reinsurance until July 1, 2005, unless terminated earlier as provided therein.

The CEO Employment Agreement currently provides for a base salary of $450,000 per year. Mr. Stanard is entitled to certain expense reimbursements related to housing, automobile, traveling and other expenses and is also entitled to the reimbursement of reasonable business-related expenses incurred by him in connection with the performance of his duties. Mr. Stanard may receive an annual bonus consistent with the treatment of our other executive officers at the discretion of the Compensation/Governance Committee. Mr. Stanard is entitled to an additional annual bonus of $815,000 provided that RenaissanceRe meets the agreed upon earnings per share targets (the "Additional Bonus"). Mr. Stanard is also entitled to additional payment (the "Gross-up Payment") in an amount which, after reduction of all applicable income taxes incurred by Mr. Stanard in connection with the Gross-up Payment, is equal to the amount of income tax payable by Mr. Stanard in respect of the related Additional Bonus. Accordingly, in 2003, we paid $2,240,671 to Mr. Stanard in respect of his Additional Bonus and Gross-up Payment, all of which Mr. Stanard elected to receive in Restricted Shares vesting on the first anniversary of the date of grant. The remaining Additional Bonus and Gross-up Payment is payable on each of June 30, 2004 and 2005. The CEO Employment Agreement provides that the Additional Bonus for each year will be increased or decreased by 2.5% for each 1% increase or decrease (as the case may be) in the agreed upon earnings per share targets for the applicable year, provided that, in no event will the Additional Bonus in any year exceed $1,222,500 or be less than $407,500. The Additional Bonus is calculated and paid on a cumulative simple average basis in a manner consistent with the calculation and payment of bonuses under our Long Term Incentive Bonus Program.

Mr. Stanard is also eligible to earn an incentive bonus of $475,000 per year (the "Incentive Bonus"), payable in June 2004, June 2005, and June 2006. Incentive Bonuses shall be paid only if we meet cumulative ROE targets for each immediately preceding fiscal year to be established by the Board and reflected in our then current business plan. ROE shall be computed on a cumulative basis; i.e., percentage excesses or shortfalls against annual targets will be applied toward subsequent fiscal years. Accordingly, an Incentive Bonus which is not payable for a given fiscal year as a result of our failure to meet the cumulative ROE target for that year shall be payable in a later year if we meet the cumulative ROE target for that subsequent year. Mr. Stanard received an Incentive Bonus in June 2003 of $475,000.

- 26 -

In addition, the CEO Employment Agreement provides that we shall generally indemnify Mr. Stanard to the fullest extent provided under Bermuda law, except in certain limited circumstances.

The CEO Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Stanard shall be entitled to participate in the Stock Incentive Plans and any successor plan, such participation to be commensurate with his position as Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to the terms of the CEO Employment Agreement, in 2001 we granted to Mr. Stanard 300,000 Restricted Shares, which vest at the rate of 25% a year with the first installment vesting as of July 1, 2002. The vesting of the Restricted Stock and any future awards granted under the Stock Incentive Plans shall be accelerated in the event of a termination of Mr. Stanard's employment by us without Cause, or by Mr. Stanard for Good Reason (each as defined in the CEO Employment Agreement), or by reason of his death or disability unless, with respect only to future awards, Mr. Stanard is otherwise notified by us at the time of grant.

The CEO Employment Agreement contains customary provisions relating to exclusivity of services, non-competition and confidentiality. These provisions require that Mr. Stanard devote substantially all of his working time to RenaissanceRe's business, and not engage in competitive business activities. As described below, the non-competition obligation may extend for up to one year after termination of Mr. Stanard's employment. In addition, Mr. Stanard is required to maintain in confidence, and not use for his own benefit, any business secrets or other confidential information concerning our business or policies.

The CEO Employment Agreement provides that, in general, upon a termination of Mr. Stanard's employment for any reason other than death, disability or, prior to a Change in Control (as defined in the CEO Employment Agreement), a termination by us without Cause or by Mr. Stanard for Good Reason, Mr. Stanard may not engage in business practices competitive with our business for a period of one year from termination. In exchange for this non-competition obligation, Renaissance Reinsurance is required to pay Mr. Stanard an amount equal to his then current base salary and the highest regular discretionary bonus paid or payable to Mr. Stanard over the preceding three fiscal years, in twelve equal monthly installments. Upon certain terminations of employment, we may, within 14 days of such termination, elect not to enforce the non-competition obligation, in which case we are not obligated to pay the amounts described in the preceding sentence. The CEO Employment Agreement also provides for acceleration of the Additional Bonus and Gross-up Payment upon certain terminations. These payments may be payable on the date of the termination or on the last day of the non-competition period, depending on the reason for termination and whether a Change in Control has occurred.

In the event that a Change in Control occurs and, on or within one year following the date thereof, Mr. Stanard's employment is terminated without Cause or voluntarily by him for Good Reason, we will be required to pay him within fifteen days following the date of such termination, in lieu of the payments described in the immediately preceding paragraph, a lump sum cash amount equal to two times the sum of (i) the highest rate of annual salary in effect during the term of the CEO Employment Agreement plus (ii) the highest regular annual bonus paid or payable to Mr. Stanard over the preceding three fiscal years (excluding the Additional Bonus, the Incentive Bonus and any extraordinary or non-recurring bonus).

- 27 -

The CEO Employment Agreement also provides that, in the event of a termination by us of Mr. Stanard's employment without Cause, by Mr. Stanard with Good Reason, or by reason of Mr. Stanard's death or disability, Mr. Stanard will be paid an Incentive Bonus equal to the aggregate amount of Incentive Bonuses payable through June 2006 reduced by the aggregate amount of all previous Incentive Bonuses paid to Mr. Stanard. These payments are required to be made irrespective of whether applicable ROE targets have been met.

Employment Agreements with Other Named Executive Officers

Effective as of June 30, 2003, we entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Riker and Eklund, and amended and restated employment agreements with each of Messrs. Lummis and Nichols. The structure and terms of these agreements are substantially similar except as described in more detail below. Under these agreements, the executives receive (i) a base salary at a rate to be determined by the Board of Directors of RenaissanceRe in its discretion, upon the recommendation of RenaissanceRe's Chief Executive Officer; (ii) discretionary bonuses; and (iii) expense reimbursement for housing and automobile expenses, including a tax reimbursement payment to the extent reimbursement of housing expenses results in additional income tax liability. The agreements contain provisions relating to exclusivity of services, non-competition and confidentiality, which are similar to those contained in the CEO Employment Agreement. In addition, the agreements provide that the entity that employs the executive officer (whether RenaissanceRe or an affiliate) shall generally indemnify these officers to the fullest extent provided by Bermuda law, except in certain limited circumstances.

Unless sooner terminated as provided in the applicable agreement, Mr. Riker's agreement expires on June 30, 2008, and each of Messrs. Eklund's, Lummis' and Nichols' agreements expire on June 30, 2004; provided, that the term of the agreements for each of Messrs. Lummis and Nichols will automatically be extended for an additional one-year period on June 30 of each calendar year, unless we or Mr. Lummis or Mr. Nichols, as the case may be, gives 30 days' notice of election not to extend the term.

Upon termination of an executive's employment for any reason other than death, we will be required to continue to pay the executive, for a period of up to two years in the case of Messrs. Eklund and Riker, and up to one year in the case of Messrs. Lummis and Nichols, an amount equal to 175% of his then current base salary; provided, however, that (1) in the case of Mr. Eklund, in lieu of such amount, Mr. Eklund will be entitled to receive an amount equal to his then current base salary plus the regular annual bonus paid or payable to Mr. Eklund for fiscal year 2002 (excluding any extraordinary or non-recurring bonus); and (2) in the case of a termination without cause of Messrs. Lummis or Nichols, in a context not involving a Change in Control (as defined in the agreements), we will make minimum payments equal to an aggregate of $457,000 for Mr. Lummis and $395,000 for Mr. Nichols. These payments will be made in equal monthly installments commencing one month after the executive's termination of employment and are paid in exchange for the executive's undertaking not to compete with us for a designated period. Under certain circumstances, we may elect not to enforce the executive's non-compete obligations and, therefore, not to make the payments described in the preceding sentence.

- 28 -

In the event that a Change in Control occurs and, on or within two years following the date of such Change in Control, the applicable executive's employment is terminated without Cause, or the applicable executive terminates his employment for "Good Reason," in lieu of the amounts described above, we would be required to pay such executive within fifteen days following the date of such termination, a lump sum cash amount equal to two times the sum of (i) the highest rate of annual salary in effect during the term of the executive's employment agreement plus (ii) the highest regular annual bonus paid or payable to the applicable executive over the preceding three fiscal years excluding any extraordinary or non-recurring bonus, provided, that the amount described in clause (ii) shall not exceed 150% of the executive's specified target bonus for the year in which such termination occurs. In addition, the Restricted Shares that were granted to the executive under the employment agreement will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested on the date of such termination.

PROPOSAL 2 -- THE AUDITORS PROPOSAL

Upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board proposes that the shareholders appoint the firm of Ernst & Young to serve as our independent auditors for the 2004 fiscal year until the 2005 Annual Meeting. Ernst & Young served as our independent auditors for the 2003 fiscal year. A representative of Ernst & Young will attend the Annual Meeting and will be available to respond to questions and may make a statement if he or she so desires. Shareholders at the Annual Meeting will also be asked to vote to refer the determination of the auditors' remuneration to the Board.

Fees billed to us by Ernst & Young during the 2003 and 2002 fiscal years:

Audit Fees.

Audit Fees billed to us by Ernst & Young during our 2003 and 2002 fiscal years for (a) the audit of our annual financial statements, (b) review of our quarterly financial statements, (c) statutory audits and (d) assistance with and review of documents filed with the Commission (including comfort letters and consents) totaled $849,340 and $668,600, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees.

Audit Related Fees billed to us by Ernst & Young totaled $405,079 and $81,500, respectively during our 2003 and 2002 fiscal years and are principally derived from due diligence assistance related to the review of potential strategic transactions.

Tax Fees.

Fees billed to us by Ernst & Young during our 2003 and 2002 fiscal years for all tax related services rendered to us totaled $30,940 and $42,000, respectively.

All Other Fees.

Ernst & Young did not perform any such "other services" during our 2003 or 2002 fiscal years.

The Audit Committee has considered whether any information technology and non-audit consulting services provided by Ernst & Young could impair the independence of Ernst & Young. No such services have been provided by Ernst & Young during 2003 and 2002 and thus the Audit Committee concluded that such services did not impair the auditor's independence.

The Audit Committee must pre-approve all audit services and permitted non-audit services performed for RenaissanceRe by our auditors, subject to the de minimis exceptions for non-audit services described in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act which are approved by the Audit Committee prior to the completion of the audit. All engagements of Ernst & Young to provide audit, audit related and tax services to RenaissanceRe during 2003 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees, including the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services, provided that decisions of such subcommittee to grant pre-approvals shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

As noted above, the Audit Committee is responsible for managing our relationship with our independent auditors (subject to shareholder ratification as provided by Bermuda law). The Audit Committee has the sole authority to hire and employ our auditors. The Audit Committee regularly reviews the auditors' work plan, staffing comments, bills and work product. Accordingly, it is our policy that all proposed engagements by our current audit firm must be approved in advance by the Audit Committee.

RECOMMENDATION AND VOTE

Approval of our Auditors Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights attached to the Common Shares present, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE AUDITORS PROPOSAL.
